

December 2025

Taking a Moment to Reflect This Holiday Season

Take a moment. Pause. Celebrate.

Christmas (December 25)

A Christian holiday celebrating the birth of Jesus.

Hanukkah (begins at sundown December 14)

The Jewish Festival of Lights commemorates the rededication of the Second Temple.

Kwanzaa (begins December 26)

A cultural holiday celebrating African-American heritage, principles, and community.

Each of these days is unique in its history and traditions, yet all share themes of light, hope, unity, and gratitude. However you observe this season, please know that ADDvantage Casket Company is grateful for you every day.

This year, we're choosing something different. On one of these meaningful days in December — whichever you honor — we are pausing our regular promotions.

Instead, we're recognizing the birth of one of the wisest and most humble individuals ever to walk this earth, and reflecting on the values that connect us all.

In a world full of things we could sell, we hope this simple pause encourages all of us to reflect, give thanks, and recognize the deeper meaning of this season — a time of togetherness, goodwill, and shared humanity.

Wishing you a joyful Kwanzaa, a Happy Hanukkah, and a Merry Christmas, from Bill Forsberg and the ADDvantage Casket team.

Happy Holidays from Bill and the ADDvantage Casket Family

“In a world filled with noise and busyness, taking a moment to pause reveals what’s most important: faith, heritage, family, and community. Thank you for letting us be part of your work and your world.”
